DR. WEEKS'S
Classical & English School,

167 Washington st.,

NEWARK, N. J.

This School has now been continued more than ten years, during which time many young men have been sent to College, and many more aided in their preparation for business.

The LATIN and GREEK Languages are taught after the most approved method; and the fundamental branches of a Business Education are attended to with more than ordinary care.

Book-keeping is taught by Mr. GEORGE H. WEEKS, on the system of Jones, which, by making a new and interesting developement of its principles, enables the pupil to proceed understandingly to practice.

The great aim of the teachers is to train the pupils to prompt and vigorous thought. Nothing is done for display. Instead of public examinations of an uncertain character, an accurate account of each day's performances is kept, and sent home weekly for the inspection of the parent.

Tuition,—$6, $8, or $10 per quarter of eleven weeks, according to the studies pursued.

Books and stationery furnished, when desired, at the lowest prices; but no extra charges.

THE MISSES BUCKNALL'S FEMALE SEMINARY.

No. 382 Broad-street.

In this institution, the more solid and useful branches of Female Education, are taught with special care, while all requisite attention is given to those of an Ornamental character.

The mode of Instruction adopted, is intended to exercise the reflecting and reasoning faculties, to promote habits of considerate and independent thought, and to impress a conscientious regard for religious obligations.

The science of vocal music is taught as a regular branch of education. All the pupils attending the Institution constitute the music class. This arrangement not only affords an agreeable relaxation from severe studies, but also proves an invaluable aid in the art and science of elocution.

The course of studies embraces Languages, Geography, Mathematics, Natural and Intellectual Science, Music, and Theology.

There is one Vacation and one Recess.

The Vacation commences at the close of the fourth term in July, and continues till the first Monday in September. The Recess comprehends the Christmas holydays.

No deduction will be made for absence during the term, except in the case of protracted illness.

NEWARK SELECT ENGLISH SEMINARY, FOR YOUNG MISSES AND MASTERS.

Located in Clinton Street.

REUBEN PORTER, JR. Principal.

This institution will be conducted upon a principle which is designed to develop the reasoning faculties of the youth in every stage of their progress, to thoroughly ground them in the elementary branches, and render the acquisition dependent upon the expansion of the intellect and capability of the pupil. As the science of mathematics has a tendency to discipline, invigorate, and enlarge the powers of the mind, its elucidation will therefore be perfectly comprehensible, its demonstrations methodical, and its application to the mechanical and mercantile pursuits, thorough and practical.

The principal would with ineffable delight, return his sincere acknowledgments to those worthy gentlemen who have so liberally favored him with their patronage, assuring them and the public generally, that all his exertions will be concentrated in the welfare and advancement in literature, of those placed under his superintendence and instruction.

The next term of this institution will commence on Monday April 7th, and continue Twelve weeks.

The studies pursued are, Reading, Spelling, Writing, Geography, Grammar, Arithmetic, Declamation and Composition, Ancient and Modern History, Logic, Natural and Moral Philosophy, Chemistry, Botany, Astronomy, Mineralogy, Geology.

Terms, from $2 50 to $6 00.

No Pupil received for a less time than one term, and no deduction for lost time, protracted sickness excepted. Pupils will be received at any time during the term. Patrons are solicited to visit the school frequently, as it has a tendency to stimulate the pupil to a more assiduous application to study.

A recess of a week is given at the Holydays—another during the Spring—and the usual Summer Vacation.

PIERSON'S NEWARK CITY DIRECTORY,

FOR THE
72d YEAR OF AMERICAN INDEPENDENCE,
FROM 4th JULY, 1847.

Important observations to those using this work.

Throughout this Directory, the christian names of those where there are more than one of the same surname, are carefully alphabetically arranged, male and female, firms, &c. In searching for a name, the inquirer must know the proper spelling. For example, a person seeking for—Pirsson, will not find the one sought for if he looks in the names of Pierson; so, also, for—Bonnell, he should not look among the Bunnells; and for Conger not in Congar; and for Parcels not look in Parsals or Parceils; not for Hays in Hayes.

IMPROVED PREMIUM

PLOUGHS.

The subscriber having made some additional improvements in his Ploughs, and having received the First Premium at the late Essex County Fair, and also the First Premium having been awarded to the Ploughmen who used the subscriber's Ploughs at the American Institute ploughing matches for two successive years, has full confidence in recommending them to the farmers of New Jersey, as being superior to any others.

The advantages of these Ploughs are, that they draw much easier than any other Plough, and do better work with less labor for the ploughman, as they run very steady. Numerous testimonials can be obtained from persons who have used them, but they are not called for, as the Ploughs will recommend themselves.

The subscriber has also a general assortment of other Ploughs, such as the Wisconsin, Meeker, Dutcher, Freeborn, Side Hill, and Subsoil Ploughs, together with a general assortment of

This my Thirteenth Edition comes forth, as usual, in good and reasonable time, considering the large increase of names, which require more time to do the work. Last year there were 6500 names, this year 7000, increase 500, which adds two thousand to the population; and allowing four persons to a name, (which is the true ratio,) makes the population 28,000. There were built from the first of April 1846, to first of April 1847, three hundred and ten buildings of various kinds in the following streets, alphabetically arranged, viz:

Academy 5, Adams 1, Alling 2, Arch 2, Baldwin 4, Bank 4, Beach 1, Bleeker 3, Boudinot 6, Boyden 1, Bridge 1, Broad 5, Broom 3, Brown 1, Bruen 1, Catharine 3, Centre 1, Charlton 3, Cherry 3, Chesnut 1, Church 4, Clinton 2, Columbia 3, Commercial 1, Commerce 2, Congress 1, Cottage 3, Court 3, Crane 2, Cross 4, Dark Lane 2, Division 1, Division Lane, Durand 1, East Kinney 2, East River 1, Elm 4, Fair 2, Ferry 6, Franklin Place 5, Front 1, Grand 1, Hamilton 2, Harrison 1, High 5, Incline Plane 4, Jefferson 3, Kinney 13, Lafayette 6, Lawrence 2, Liberty 4, Lumber 1, Lush 2, Madison 2, Maiden Lane 2, Market 3, Mechanic 4, Mill 4, Monroe 1, Mulberry 14, Newark 1, North Broad 12, Ogden 1, Orange 7, Orchard 6, Park 2, Parkhurst 3, Pear Alley 1, Pine 1, Plane 7, Plume 5, Prince 3, Quarry 6, Rail Road Avenue 4, Ranc 1, Rector 2, Ridge 1, River 6, Scribner's Court 2, Shipman 1, Smith 1, South Canal 7, South Market 6, Spring 6, Springfield avenue 2, Spruce 1, State 4, Ste-nens' Court 4, Somerset 1, Summit 1, Thomas 1, Tich-nor 1, Union 6, Van Buren 1, Walnut 9, Ward 1, Warren 7, Washington 7, William 6, Wilsey 1. Total 310—yet there were many who could not get a house or part of a house, when the Directory went to press; and as regards collecting the names, I assert that it is well done, for I done all the work myself, and consider it a great feat.—And if any names are not found in my Directory that are here, and ought to be in, I am not to blame; for I have done all that any one man could do, to get all, and have them spelled right.

I have been at great expense in re-writing my runners' guide, showing the commencement and course of every street; together with a fine Copper Plate Map, which will be found a handsome appendage to the Book—and all, ALL for one dollar.

I have issued a few extra copies in order to pay expenses, and shall rely upon the citizens to buy, and pay for every copy without grumbling, or asking for trust or bar-ter; for this edition will cost over four hundred dollars.

The Ladies will please remember that next February has 29 days, when they will have an opportunity of ———.

I will close my remarks by saying NEWARK is now moving on prosperously, and every branch of business appears to be going ONWARD right, and if all would be content to do well—we shall continue UNDER PROVIDENCE, to grow RICHER and RICHER, and not POORER and POORER.

I give here a synopsis of the most useful matter, exclusive of names, contained in a few of my editions, viz:
1836 History of Newark, Statement of Business of the N. J. Railroad.

1837 History of Newark; Incorporation of Newark; City Government; Standing Committee, &c

1844 New Jersey Executive of 1843-4; Presidential Elections since the adoption of the Constitution; Mount Pleasant Cemetery Incorporation, Officers, &c.; Synods of New Jersey and New York; Census of Newark in 1836 and 1840.

1846 Census of Newark for 1836, 1840 and 1845; New Jersey Executive; New York Distances; N. J. Assylum; Business of Newark.
